ANNAPOLIS, April 28. A GOOD PIECE OF NEWS, NEWS OF A GOOD PEACE

We are informed by Mr. Wallace, of this City, who left New-York on Tuesday, last Week, that the Day before, arrived there from England, (which she left the beginning of March) the -Packet, Capt. Boulderfox, with a certain Account, that the Definitive Treaty of Peace was concluded on and Signed: And that his Majesty of Prusha had come to a Reconciliation with the Emprels Queen. But for further Particulars, we must wait till next Week.

We have an Account that our Fleet fail'd from Cork for London on the First of February, under Convoy of the Gospore, and several other Men of War. Last Thursday the Purse of Fifty Pistoles was Run for on the Race-Ground in this City. Six Started for it; but it was Won by Mr. Calver's Jolly Chefter, who got the two first Heats: The Entrance Money was Won by Capt. Chapmen's Creeping John.

Next Day the Twenty-five Pistoles was Won by Mr. Bullen's -Mr. Carrell's Horse Nimble, won the Two first Heats; but in running the Third to lave his Distance only, the foolish Rider endeavoured to get Before, and ran within one of the Poles.

In the NEW-YORK GAZETTE of the 18th Inflant, is the following Paragraph: "Saturday "laft the great Race at Harless was Run between "the True-Briton and Old-England, when the latter was Diffanced." There had been feveral vaunting Advertisements publish'd by J. L. the Owner of Old-England, in Praise of his own, and disparaging the other, telling the Public, that Breed of the Country [meaning the Nath Than] subgred be came from. This families Mr. J. L. [A Lover of the Tarf, as he filles himself] it is hop'd will use better Manners in his fature Advertisements.
